

Advisory Committee on Animal Feedingstuffs

To interested parties

11th May 2015

Dear Colleague,

ACAF Open Meeting: 19 June 2015 at Queen's University, Belfast

The Advisory Committee on Animal Feedingstuffs (ACAF) is a committee of experts which advises on the safety and use of animal feed and feeding practices, with particular emphasis on protecting human health and with reference to new technical developments and new feed materials.

The Committee's 67th meeting will take place on Friday 19 June 2015 at Queen's University, Belfast. The meeting will start at 9.00 am and will finish at lunchtime. This is an opportunity for interested parties and members of the public to observe how this government advisory committee operates, and to follow the debate on a range of animal feed issues. A provisional agenda is attached and further details about the Committee can be found at: <http://acaf.food.gov.uk/>

At the close of the meeting observers will be given a chance to ask questions of the Committee.

There is no entrance fee but places must be booked in advance. If you would like to attend the open meeting please complete the registration form and return it to me at the address below by Monday 1st June 2015. Alternatively, you can e-mail me at: acaf@foodstandards.gsi.gov.uk

Yours faithfully,

Freddie Lachman
