

Advisory Committee on Animal Feedingstuffs

To interested parties

8 September 2014

Dear Colleague,

ACAF Open Meeting: 22 October 2014, Aviation House

The Advisory Committee on Animal Feedingstuffs (ACAF) is a committee of experts which advises on the safety and use of animal feed and feeding practices, with particular emphasis on protecting human health and with reference to new technical developments and new feed materials.

The Committee's 65th meeting will take place on Wednesday 22 October 2014 at Aviation House, 125 Kingsway, London. The meeting will start at 10.30 am and will finish approximately at 15.30pm. This is an opportunity for interested parties and members of the public to observe how this government advisory committee operates, and to follow the debate on a range of animal feed issues. A provisional agenda is attached with a fact sheet on ACAF is enclosed for your information. Further details about the Committee can be found at: <http://acaf.food.gov.uk/>

At the close of the meeting observers will be given a chance to ask questions of the Committee.

There is no entrance fee but places must be booked in advance. If you would like to attend the open meeting please complete the registration form and return it to me at the address below by Friday 12 October 2014. Alternatively, you can e-mail me at: freddie.lachhman@foodstandards.gsi.gov.uk

Yours faithfully,

Freddie Lachhman
