Dear Colleague,

ACAF Open Meeting: 28 September 2011, Aberdeen Scotland

The Advisory Committee on Animal Feedingstuffs (ACAF) is a committee of experts which advises on the safety and use of animal feed and feeding practices, with particular emphasis on protecting human health and with reference to new technical developments and new feed materials.

The Committee's 55th meeting will take place in open session at our Scottish office – 6th Floor, St. Magnus House, 25 Guild Street, Aberdeen AB11 6NJ on 28 September 2011. Registration will be at 9am, with the meeting starting at 9.30am. The meeting is estimated to finish at 1pm. This is an opportunity for interested parties and members of the public to observe how this government advisory committee operates, and to follow the debate on a range of animal feed issues. A provisional agenda is attached for your information and further details about the Committee can be found at: <http://acaf.food.gov.uk/>

At the close of the meeting observers will be given a chance to ask questions of the Committee.

There is no entrance fee but places must be booked in advance. If you would like to attend the open meeting please complete the registration form and return it to me at the address below by Monday 19 September 2011. Alternatively, you can e-mail me at: raj.pal@foodstandards.gsi.gov.uk

A map showing the location of St Magnus House and a fact sheet on ACAF are also enclosed for your information.

Yours faithfully,

Raj Pal
ACAF Secretariat
